The Vice President appointed Messrs. Stewart and Stockton members of the Board of Visitors to West Point in place of Messrs. Wilson and Blair, declined.

REIMBURSING U. S. MARSHALS.

Mr. Boreman called up the Senate bill to reimburse United States Marshals for money necessarily expended by them in taking the ninth census in excess of the compensation allowed them under the law in force before the passage of this act. Passed.

COLLECTION OF CUSTOMS.

Mr. Trumbull moved that the Judiciary Committee be discharged from further consideration of the House bill to regulate the seizure and examination of invoices, books and papers in the Custom House, and that the bill be placed on the calendar.

Mr. Conkling objected to the motion in the absence of Mr. Edwards.

Mr. Fenton expressed the hope that the Committee would be discharged, and that the bill to regulate the service in the collection of customs at the various ports of entry in the United States, and the disposition of fines and forfeitures incurred under the laws relating to customs, &c., which was made the special order for the 8th of January, would be taken up and passed. The exigencies of the public service require its consideration. He charged that this bill, which had now been delayed for several months, had been purposely delayed.

After further discussion Mr. Edmunds moved to lay Mr. Trumbull's motion on the table. Not agreed to—yeas 20, nays 23.

The morning hour expired, and the subject went over.

CUSTOM HOUSE INVESTIGATION.

Mr. Bayard asked unanimous consent to have a vote taken on his motion to allow the minority of the New York Custom House investigating committee to print their views during recess.

Mr. Cole objected.

SUNDRY CIVIL APPROPRIATION BILL.

The sundry civil appropriation bill was then taken up. The motion of the committee to strike out the sixth section allowing pay to mail contractors in the rebel States prior to May 31, 1861, was carried by a vote of 28 to 27.

The amendment of the committee to allow a credit to the Collector of the port of Chicago in settlement of his accounts of such sums of coin and currency as may have been lost during the fire in that city was agreed to.

The amendment of the committee appropriating $281,055 to restore to the Creek Indians certain funds to which they are entitled under the treaty of 1832 was discussed at length and rejected.

BILL RETURNED.

A message was received from the President returning without his approval the bill for the relief of Thomas Wallace, and giving his reasons therefore, which was read and referred to the Committee on Claims. The bill is of the same character as the claim of J. Milton Best, of Kentucky, and vetoed for the same reasons as that.

Mr. Cole moved an amendment authorizing the Secretary of War to extend the signal service to take observations for the benefit of agriculture. Agreed to.

The committee amendment providing that the Secretary of the Navy shall pay the unliquidated debt now due the Corliess Steam Engine Company, for steam machinery furnished under a contract with the Navy Department, amounting to $257,688, was discussed with reference to its admissibility as an amendment to the bill under consideration, and was ruled out.

Mr. Morrill (Vermont) moved an amendment modifying the provisions of July 3d, 1870, requiring all unexpended balances of appropriations for public buildings to be covered into the treasury at the end of the year for which they were appropriated, so as to allow such balances to be expended during the year following the period of limit mentioned in the law.

Pending action on the amendment, the Senate proceeded to the consideration of executive business, as the close of which a recess was taken.

RETIRED ARMY OFFICERS.

Evening Session.—Mr. Wilson, from the Military Committee, reported the House bill in relation to retired officers of the army, and repealing the thirty-second section of the act of July 20, 1866.

SUNDRY CIVIL APPROPRIATION BILL.

The sundry civil appropriation bill was taken up, the question being on the adoption of an amendment offered by Mr. Morrill (Vt.) to repeal so much of the act of July 3, 1870, as prohibits the use of unexpended balances of appropriations for public buildings beyond the year for which they were appropriated.

Mr. Morrill submitted a modification removing the restriction from all public buildings now in course of erection and so far as related to present unexpended balances. The modified amendment was agreed to.

Mr. Morrill (Me.) offered an amendment appropriating additional $3,000 for the decoration of the capitol with works of art. Agreed to.

Also an amendment appropriating $9,000 for the publication of the volumes of Wilkes' exploring expedition. Agreed to.

Mr. Conkling, on behalf of the Committee on Commerce, offered amendments appropriating $18,000 for the erection of a light house at Green Bay, Wis., and $10,000 for a light house at the entrance to White River, Michigan. Agreed to.

Mr. Kellogg offered as an amendment the substantiaed supplemental enforcement act already passed by the Senate this season, removing the restriction and provision of the original enforcement act to places having 20,000 population and upwards, and extending them to all voting precincts.

Mr. Casserly raised the point that the amendment was not in order.

The Chair (Anthony) overruled the point.

Mr. Thurman appealed from the decision, but it was sustained—28 to 22.

Mr. Thurman moved for indefinite postponement of the bill, denouncing the proposal as one to stifle free speech in a way never before known in the world, and a step towards placing the country under the rule of Ulysses the Silent. If this arbitrary rule is to prevail, it is the death knell of liberty in this country. He appealed to the majority to extend the session rather than overthrow the last refuge of the minority.

Mr. Sumner thanked Mr. Thurman for what he had said, and, under the ruling of the Chair, offered the civil rights bill as an amendment.

Mr. Blair moved to adjourn. Lost—30 to 16.

HOUSE.

Mr. Butler (Mass.) introduced a bill fixing the time of the operation of the tariff free list on the 1st of July, instead of August. Referred to Committee on Ways and Means.

RAWLINS STATUE.

The Speaker laid before the House a message from the President calling the attention of Congress to an act approved July 14, 1870, directing the Secretary of War to place at the disposal of the President certain bronze cannon for the erection of an equestrian statue of General J. C. Rawlins, etc. The President says that no artist is named or parties designated to whom the ordnance is to be delivered. In order to remove ambiguity, he desires Congress to signify what action shall be taken as to the artist, and fix the amount of money to be expended; and further, that a board of officers shall be named to locate the monument. Referred to Committee on Appropriations.

The Speaker also laid before the House additional copies of correspondence relating to the commerce between the United States and certain British colonial possessions; also copies of correspondence with regard to the extradition treaty between the United States and Belgium. Referred.

ENFORCING CIVIL RIGHTS.

The House took up the Senate bill to declare and enforce the civil rights of citizens of the United States.

Mr. Poland offered an amendment providing that no penalty should exceed one thousand dollars, the minimum to be at the discretion of the court.

After discussion, Mr. Poland moved to pass the bill under a suspension of the rules with his amendment.

The House voted and the result was 86 against 73, so the question was decided in the negative, there not being the required two-thirds vote.

Mr. Poland then modified his amendment, changing the proposed penalty from $1,000 to $100, and again moved a suspension of the rules and the passage of the bill. The vote was 83 against 73.

Arrest of Dr. Lanahan.

THE LABOR QUESTION.

NEW YORK, June 7, 1872.

EXCITED FRENCHMEN.

A small body of excited men, supposed to be French Communists, greeted the debarkation of the Band Garde Republicaine yesterday with shouts of "Vive la Commune" "Vive la Internationale," and a general volley of jeers and insulting shouts. The offenders were dispersed by the police, who arrested one of their number. The band left for Boston last evening.

THE LABOR QUESTION.

The executive committee of the Eight Hour League have been busily engaged in the preparation of a letter to Governor Hoffman repelling the accusation of violence which has been brought against workmen.

The meetings of the German furniture makers continue large and enthusiastic, the men evincing as much determination as on the first day of the strike. Although threatening no violent measures, they are gradually manifesting a bitter and revolutionary spirit.

The Eight Hour League this morning received dispatches from Philadelphia, stating that the gas trustees will accede to the demands of the laborers in the gas works. The coach makers held a mass meeting this morning, to lay plans for future proceedings.

The car drivers of the Fourth avenue line decided last night to demand an increase of pay, and, it is said, have obtained the price demanded, though efforts are being made to keep the matter quiet.

The Gas Men's Protective Union, numbering some 650 men, resolved to stop work to-morrow night, unless the hours were reduced to eight.

The sewing machine workmen formed a Protective Union to-day. The Amalgamated Miner's Society meditate a speedy strike for eight hours.

At a meeting of the Workingmen's Union this evening, the Knights of St. Crispin, of this city, resolved to strike to-morrow against a reduction of wages. Preparations were also made for a grand demonstration and parade of all trades on Monday. The printers of this city also reported that they would strike for the eight hour system early in July.

ARREST OF DR. LANAHAN.

Dr. Lanahan was arrested this afternoon on an order of arrest issued by Judge Friedorm, of the Supreme Court, on complaint of Goodenough, who has brought suit against him to recover damages for alleged slander. The plaintiff, in his affidavit, says Dr. Lanahan had called him a thief and a robber, and that he accused him of wearing diamonds and other articles of jewelry purchased with money which he had taken from the Methodist Book Concern. Bail was fixed at $5,000.

Dr. Lanahan refused to allow any of his friends to bail him, on the ground that he had been persecuted by the Methodist Book Concern, and was committed to the Ludlow street jail. He has sent to Baltimore for his brother to procure surety. He is expected here to-morrow.

CONTESTED WILL CASE.

A verdict for the plaintiff was rendered in the Superior Court in the case of Laura E. Bolton, contesting the will of her father, Theodore B. Tallmedge, made in 1839, to obtain possession of property valued at $40,000. This case is a test one for the whole property, involving $200,000. The complaint alleges undue influence in obtaining the will, and that deceased was a resident of Columbia county, while the will was probated in New York county, thus rendering it a nullity. The father died in 1841, when complainant was an infant.

SECOND EDITION.

Four O'Clock.

THE CAPITAL.

The Additional Article.

LOUISVILLE CANAL TOLLS.

An Old Claim Settled.

WASHINGTON, June 7, 1872.

THE ADDITIONAL ARTICLE.

A report prevailed to-day that England has accepted the additional article to the treaty of Washington. This report may have been founded on remarks made last night in the House of Lords, which gave promise of such a result. No official information had been received up to a late hour to-night concerning the report. Gentlemen in official positions have, however, through Minister Schenck, such intimations as lead them to believe that the article will be accepted with an explanation to the British Minister by authority of our Government in relation to consequential damages. Should the article be accepted, it will be embodied in the form of a treaty, to be negotiated here by Secretary Fish and Sir Edward Thornton, and then sent to London for the Sovereign's signature. The arbitrators at Geneva can adjourn soon after their meeting on the 15th instant, to meet again as soon as the document shall reach them, and thereafter continue their business without further impediment.

AN OLD CLAIM SETTLED.

During the proceedings in the House of Representatives this afternoon a bill was passed for the relief of a lady aged 71, giving her $8,000, being the amount of seven and one-half years' pay due her father, who served as an officer under Paul Jones in the Bon Homme Richard. Twenty-five years have been spent by her in prosecuting the claim. She was in the gallery when the announcement of the passage of the bill was made by the Speaker, and waved her handkerchief with an air of triumph. Several members on the floor, noticing this act, began to applaud, meanwhile smiling at the lady as if to express their gratification at the result. Other members followed their example, and a general clapping of hands and laughter rang through the hall. The lady, overcome by her feelings, burst into tears, and then fell on her knees in prayer. Many hearts were made glad by the lady's success.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

An area of cloudy weather and rain will extend eastward over New England and possibly northern portion of the South Atlantic States during to-night; a rising barometer with westerly winds and clear weather to northerly winds and clear weather will prevail very generally on Saturday from Tennessee northward to Lake Erie and the upper lakes, and extend eastward over the South Atlantic and Middle States during the day, and over New England on Saturday night; clear weather is probable for the Gulf States; dangerous winds not anticipated.

RAILROAD SALE POSTPONED.

In accordance with the request of the New York Central Railroad Company, the sale of their property to satisfy the demands of the Government tax is postponed until the attorneys of the company can confer with Secretary Boutwell and Commissioner Douglas.

LOUISVILLE CANAL TOLLS.

Representative Holman's proposition in the House to reduce the tolls of the Louisville canal was engrafted on the River and Harbor bill in the Senate, and has been concurred in by the House, thus giving the tolls at five cents per ton.

NOMINATION CONFIRMED.

The Senate, in executive session, confirmed the nomination of Robt. P. Dick, to be United States District Judge.

STORMS.

Iowa.

Iowa City, June 7.—A tornado passed over south Iowa City last night, unroofing and tearing down houses and barns, and killing stock. No person was injured. Orchards and crops were destroyed.

ILLINOIS.

Canton, Ill., June 9.—The most destructive rain storm for many years passed over this vicinity last night. The low lands in every direction are flooded and great destruction of crops is reported. Along the river bottoms everything is washed away. Houses and barns and stock to the north-east of this city were washed away, the inmates barely escaping with their lives. A large number of hogs and other stock was drowned. A farmer reports that two hundred fat hogs and shoats are gone. In the south-east the losses are still more extensive. Fences, bridges, culverts, small buildings, railroad tracks, and everything moveable, has been swept away. Seven narrow escapes from drowning are reported. An invalid, who was compelled to move out in the storm, died of exposure this morning. All the coal mines are flooded east and south of this point, and south-west of Canton, on Spoon river, the damage is reported as still greater; but no particulars can be obtained, as all communication is severed. The T. P. & W. R. R. is badly washed away. Each side of the Canton bridges are gone. The telegraph is down. The C. B. & Q. track is also badly washed. Several bridges between this point and Rushville are gone. The damage to the crops cannot now be ascertained with any certainty, but it is beyond doubt that all grain on the low lands is washed out. The higher prairie farms have not suffered so much, but have not escaped entirely. It will be several days before the real extent of the damage is ascertained.

Late reports make the damage much worse than was even first reported. It will take several days to repair the railroads. In all ten miles of track and bridges are gone. All communication is cut off for several days. Two more deaths by drowning are reported.

GRANT AND WILSON.

How the People Received Their Nomination.

Madison, Ind., June 7.—Great joy was manifested yesterday when telegraph dispatches announced the nomination of Grant and Wilson, and immediately on the receipt of the news a salute of one hundred guns was fired, and last night a huge ratification meeting was held in the Court House, at which Judge Friedley presided, and speeches were made by Hon. D. C. Branham, Dr. Cornett, Dr. Collins, Col. Garber, the veteran editor of the Courier, and others. Resolutions heartily and unequivocally endorsing the nominations were passed.

Atchison, Kansas, June 7.—A very large and enthusiastic Grant and Wilson ratification meeting was held here to-night. It is estimated that 5,000 people were present. Bonfires, salutes, music and speeches were the order of the evening.

New York, June 7.—There was a large meeting of colored men in Brooklyn to-night to ratify the nomination of Grant and Wilson. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed. Wm. H. Johnson, a colored man, made an address, and stated that 15,000 colored voters in this State would support the nominees of the Philadelphia Convention.

Washington, June 7.—A Grant and Wilson meeting was held to-night at Lincoln Hall, which was crowded, a number of ladies being among the auditors. Senator Sherman presided, and made a speech followed by Secretary Delano, Representatives Bingham, Shellabarger and Stevenson, and Professors L. Langston and Starrs, of Chicago. Resolutions were adopted endorsing the Philadelphia nominations, and the meeting adjourned with enthusiastic cheers.

Evansville, Ind., June 7.—There was a large ratification meeting of Grant and Wilson men at the Opera House to-night, and a national salute was fired.

CHICAGO.

Terrible Accident—Death of Forepaugh's Elephant Romeo.

Chicago, June 7.—A terrible accident occurred at the ruins of the Grace Episcopal Church, on the corner of North Lasalle and Superior streets. Workmen are engaged in taking down the walls and clearing away the debris. About noon, while two of them, one named Rickson and the other Swann, were sitting on one of the walls, eating their dinners, some other workmen placed a heavy ladder against the opposite wall. They had scarcely got it into position when a large section of a heavy twenty-two inch wall fell with a fearful crash, burying the two men and crushing them out of all resemblance of humanity, the bodies presenting a horrible sight.

DEATH OF ROMEO.

The celebrated elephant Romeo, one of the oldest and said to be the largest in the United States, and valued at $20,000, died this afternoon in Forepaugh's Menagerie, now exhibiting here. The death was from natural causes. The body has been presented by Forepaugh to the Chicago Medical College. The skeleton will be mounted and placed in its museum.

ST. LOUIS.

The Berkley Trial—The Additional Electors.

St. Louis, June 7.—In the Berkley trial today three experts testified that the handwriting of the black-mailing letter offered in testimony by the defence some time ago closely resembles that of Dr. Berkley. Witnesses for the defence testified that they were present at a picnic at which it is alleged Berkley took improper liberties with Ella Perry. They saw Berkley and the child together repeatedly, but observed nothing improper in the Doctor's conduct. This case is rapidly drawing to a close, and will probably be given to the Bishop for final decision early next week.

THE ADDITIONAL ELECTORS.

It is likely that an extra session of the Legislature will be called soon to re-district the State, as it has been discovered that the additional electors to which Missouri is entitled under the new apportionment in the lower House of Congress cannot be elected at large, but must represent a definite district.

AQUATIC.

Race Between Scharff and Butler—The Pittsburgher Wins—Fastest Time in this Country.

Philadelphia, June 7.—A boat race took place this afternoon on the Schuylkill, between the celebrated oarsmen Wm. Scharff, of Pittsburgh, and Thomas C. Butler of Boston. The race was for $500 a side. The boats started from a point below the Reading railroad bridge, the course being five miles. Butler, at starting, was in advance, but the Pittsburgh man gradually gained, and at the stake boat was some distance ahead. At the home stretch he gradually widened the gap, and reached the starting point twelve lengths ahead of his opponent, winning easily. The time made by Scharff was 32:27, which is the fastest time ever made in this country.

CINCINNATI.

Terrible Coal Oil Explosion.

Cincinnati, June 7.—A coal oil explosion took place in the cellar of Henry Milxman's store on Fifth street, near Vine, at seven o'clock this evening. It blew the show windows and contents and the doors into the street, blew out the end of a small frame which constituted the rear of the store, demolished queensware and lamps, and severely burned Mr. Milxner, who was alone in the store. Several persons on the sidewalk in front of the store were prostrated, but not injured. Mr. Milxman's injuries are severe, but perhaps not fatal. How the oil ignited no one can tell. No one was in the cellar at the time. Speculations are that it is a case of spontaneous ignition. At least one barrel exploded. The fire alarm was sounded quickly, and the fire was extinguished by the engines before it got out of the cellar. The store room contained queensware, much of which was broken.

BOSTON.

Marine Disasters.

Boston, June 7.—Additional accounts continue to be received of shipwrecks by the recent storm. The schooner Endiott, Captain Reed, arrived at this port to-day. Captain Reed reports that on Wednesday he fell in with a lumber laden schooner that had lost her mainmast. The crew were evidently in great peril, as five men were seen lashed to the rigging. The sea was too high to send a boat to their aid, and Captain Reed lay by for fourteen hours, for the purpose of taking them off, but the gale continuing, it was found impossible.

After the organization had been perfected James I. Kuhn, Esq., who was at one time the law partner of the deceased, officially announced the death of the Hon. Thomas Williams. The speaker then gave a short but graphic sketch of his life, his career as a lawyer and services as a public man. He referred to his extensive and varied learning; rating him not only as a leading lawyer, just and upright in the discharge of his duties, but a scholar of profound learning—well versed in polite literature, an accomplished Latin, Greek and French linguist. He paid a glowing tribute to his purity of life, kindness of heart, and zeal in the pursuit of his profession. In conclusion he moved that a committee on resolutions be appointed, which was adopted.

The following gentlemen were named: John H. Hampton, Thomas M. Marshall, M. W. Acheson, George Shires, Jr., and A. M. Brown.

During the absence of the Committee, Mr. W. D. Moore spoke at length of the virtues and acquirements of the deceased.

The Committee, after a brief absence, returned, and upon the conclusion of Mr. Moore's remarks, presented the following resolutions, which were read and unanimously adopted:

Whereas, The Pittsburgh Bar have learned with sincere sorrow of the sudden demise of the Hon. Thomas Williams, and are desirous as a body to pay a proper tribute of respect to his memory as one of its most worthy and distinguished members, therefore, in token of its purpose publicly to honor his name as an eminent lawyer, a good citizen, and a cherished friend,

Resolved, That his purity in all the relations of private life, his unsullied reputation as a lawyer, his unassailed integrity as a public servant for many years in the discharge of responsible duties, alike entitle him to the commendation of his brethen of the Bar, the grateful recollection of the community and a place in history among the statesmen of his native State and this nation.

Resolved, That his long and successful career at the bar was full of honor, shedding lustre upon the profession he adorned by his great and varied learning, his untiring study, and a scrupulous regard for its high and ennobling duties.

Resolved, That in him were united an exact knowledge of the law, scholarly acquirements and literary tastes of a high order, and a conceded ability to both write and speak with a rare beauty and masterly power seldom falling to the lot of any man, all combining to make him greatly to be admired and long remembered.

Resolved, That whether considered as a lawyer, a statesman, or a citizen, his life, now closed, is worthy of emulation; and may hereafter be fitly spoken of by his kindred and friends as full of honor, goodness and truth, and his tomb as holding imperishably even in death, one of Fame's noblest sons.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with his bereaved family in this the hour of their sore affliction, and kindly tender them our condolence in the loss of an affectionate husband, an indulgent father, and a beloved brother.

Resolved, That the Bar in a body proceed from the Court House to the family residence, to attend the funeral on Saturday, and that a Committee of three be appointed to present a copy of these resolutions to the family.

Resolved, That the several courts of this county be requested by the same Committee to order the proceedings of this meeting to be spread at length on their minutes.

The following committee was appointed to have the resolutions engrossed and properly presented to the family of Mr. Williams: James I. Kuhn, S. H. Geyer and R. B. Carnahan. On motion it was decided that the members of the Bar shall meet at two o'clock to-morrow afternoon to attend the funeral in a body.

The meeting then adjourned.

The Disestablished Irish Church has substituted the words "Our Sovereign Lady the Queen," for "Our most religious and gracious Queen," in the prayer for Parliament.

The Church News is disposed to accept as one proof of the divine origin of the Episcopal Church the fact that it has been able to survive so many years of suffering from quartette singing.

Mr. Talmadge's lay college in Brooklyn has now 500 students engaged in lay preaching, Scripture reading meetings, and visitation of poor and sick in Brooklyn, New York, Newark, and Patterson.

During the last five years 2,000 Sunday schools have been organized in Georgia by the American Sunday School Union. In these schools 10,000 pupils are taught by 1,320 teachers.

Father Gavazzi, in his lecture in Beecher's church, said there are a hundred congregations of the Free Church of Italy, with ten thousand communists, and thirty thousand regular attendants.

The Lee avenue Reform Church of Brooklyn, New York, famous in former years for a Sunday-school of enormous size and liveliness, has resolved by a large majority to transfer itself to the Congregationalists.

The number of trustees of Methodist churches, 94,080; of stewards of societies, 80,640; of class leaders, 47,556; of Sunday School Superintendents, 19,555; of Sunday school teachers and officers other than Superintendents, 176,424.

The Central Presyterian Church of San Francisco will commence the construction of a new church next week, capable of seating 2,000 persons and to cost 40,000. They have also engaged the services of Philip Phillips, the "Singing Pilgrim," at a salary of 5,000 per year.

The Rev. J. Hyatt Smith's new Open Communion Church, in Brooklyn, is just completed. It is built of corrugated iron. The pulpit standard is of nickel-plated metal. At the pastor's feet a clock is set in the floor, and gold fish sport in fountains on each side.

The conversion of a Jewish Rabbi priest to Christianity, in Mobile, has been of late the great excitement in religious circles. He has been in the city about eighteen months, in charge of a large congregation of Jews, besides teaching a flourishing Hebrew school connected with it.

The Pope is reported to have stated to some Americans lately, that if he should ever leave Rome he would be glad to take up his residence in New York, because no city in the world contains more earnest Catholics, or those more devoted to the highest and best interests of the Church.

The Board of Trustees of the Pittsburgh and Tarentum Camp Meeting Association will meet lot holders and others on the camp ground, on Monday, June 17th, at 7½ A. M., to complete arrangements for the annual camp meeting, which will commence on Wednesday, August 14th.

The M. E. Church at Penn Station, Rev. S. Keebler pastor, having been closed for repairs, will be reopened on Sabbath, June 16th. Rev. L. McGuire, of Bingham street, Birmingham, will preach at 10½ A. M., and Rev. M. J. Montgomery, of Pennsylvania avenue, Pittsburgh, at 7½ P. M.

The King of Bavaria has written to Dr. Doellinger, on the fiftieth anniversary of the latter's ordination as a priest, to praise his life-long conscientiousness in the fulfillment of his duties, "and to express the wish that 'God may still preserve him for a long time in his physical and mental vigor.'"

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church reports 11 missionary women and 8 Bible women in India, 7 missionary women in China, several Bible women at Oromiah, Persia, 3 missionary women and 9 native teachers in Syria, and missionary women in other places.

There are no less than nine different Methodist bodies in Canada; five of them, the M. E. Church of Canada, the M. E. Church of British North America, the Independent Methodist Church, the United Brethren in Methodism, and the Evangelical Association, having Bishops and episcopal form of government.

The Baptist Home Missionary Society received $218,68 last year, and had remaining from the previous year $37,493.50. The total expenditure was $236,979.86, leaving a balance of $19,202.97. There were 5,850 persons baptized last year, and 111,130 families visited. There are now 424 ministers laboring in its service.

Europe rejoices in a new religious order, "The White Ladies," or reparatrices, who undertake by ardent prayer to obtain pardon for the insults neglects and outrages offered to the holy sacrament throughout the world. The supplications, to be effective, must be unceasing; so the nuns of the order by relieving each other every two hours, continually kneel in silent prayer before the chapel altar.

An editorial article has appeared in the New York Observer on the subject of ministerial support in which the ground is squarely taken that the supply exceeds the demand among the Presbyterians, an opinion indorsed by many of the readers of that paper. They had 4,347 ministers, 2,740 of whom are not engaged in any ministerial work, even as pastors or temporary supplies.

Geo. Muller's report of his orphan house at Bristol, England, is full of thanksgiving and confidence. During the last year the institution has not only lacked nothing, but every part of the work has been considerably enlarged. Since its foundation, in 1834, Mr. Muller has received more than $2,500,000, "the result of prayer and faith." The expenses of the last year have been $195,000.

The statistics of the Presbyterian Church, as reported to the General Assembly, in Detroit, are as follows:

Ordained ministers	4,346
Licentiates	321

A ter-centenary celebration commemorative of the events which render the [illegible] memorable in Presbyterian history will be [illegible] the 20th of November—the three hundredth anniversary of the formation of the first Presbytery in England. A memorial discourse will be delivered in the morning by the Rev. S. J. Wilson, D. D., L. L. D., Professor in the Theological Seminary at Allegheny, Pa. In the afternoon a paper on "Presbyterianism in Philadelphia" will be read by the Rev. R. M. Patterson, pastor of the South church, Philadelphia; another on "Presbyterianism in the United States," by the Rev. J. B. Dales, D. D., of the United Presbyterian church; and a third by the Rev. James McCosh, D. D., L. L. D., President of Princeton College, on "Presbyterianism in other Countries." In the evening the formal opening of the new Presbyterian House will take place with appropriate exercises.

The Unitarian Church on Fortieth street, New York, of which Rev. Mr. Frothingham was pastor, has been purchased by the Episcopalians, and is now open for public worship. Rev. Dr. Ewer, formerly of Christ Church, has been appointed rector, and a new parish formed for him, called the parish of St. Ignatius. Some important changes have been made, indicating the type of churchmanship of the rector and congregation. Three steps lead up to the altar, which is covered with rich frontals; above it are three retables, the topmost one of which is lofty and surmounted with seven candlesticks. The second retable contains the tabernacle, on each side of which are niches for the cross and eucharistic lights. The altar-cloth is set with crystals and precious stones, while over all is a picture of Christ in majesty, surrounded with figures of gilt on a ground work of blue, representing the nine choirs of angels.

Mr. Robert McGraw, who was killed by falling from a scaffolding in Allegheny, was one of the most active members of the lately organized U. P. Church of Bellvue.

Revs. J. H. Robinson, President of the New York Conference, John Scott, former editor of the Recorder, and C. H. Williams, fraternal messenger to the M. E. General Conference recently visited this city.

Work has commenced on the new colored Presbyterian Church in the Eleventh ward. This little society has struggled nobly in the past and we trust a brighter day is dawning. Rev. Mr. Hedges is the pastor.

Rev. J. B. Whitten will preach under the auspices of the Wylie avenue United Presbyterian Church on Sabbath evening, in the hall of the Eleven ward public school house, Granville street, near Wylie avenue, at 7½ o'clock. A special sermon preparatory to the communion of the Lord's Supper will be preached. All are invited. Seats free.

Rev. S. H. Nesbitt, D. D., will resume pastoral work, taking the Presiding Eldership of the Canton District, which is vacated by Dr. Hunter. The reverend gentleman simply changed places. This week's number of the Advocate contains Dr. Nesbitt's editorial valedictory, which is a model of neatness and grace in diction, and is full of fraternal feeling.

We have been presented by Rev. S. Collins with a photographic group of the members of the U. P. General Assembly held last month in Washington, Iowa. The lithographer is A. Kracaw, of that city, and in excellence it is unsurpassed. In the foreground we notice the venerable Moderator, Dr. J. S. Easton, of this city. On his right is the Rev. S. Collins, the efficient Superintendent of the U. P. Board of Publication. And there stands Rev. W. J. Reid, with his portly form and genial smile, and beside him Rev. Sands, Coleman and Witherspoon, of our city.

GRAND CHANCE.

On account of the very wet weather prevailing till within a few minutes of train time on the morning of Friday (the advertised day of sale of 50 Lots at Fleming Station), only half a dozen gentlemen attended the sale. It was not expected that any sales whatever would be made, as the very disagreeable weather precluded any hope of the kind. Notwithstanding that fact, 10 Lots were sold to the six persons present, showing conclusively that the Lots possess great inherent merit, and really sell themselves. The programme announced for Friday will be carried out on MONDAY, 10th inst., when the entire plan (now 40 Lots) will be sold to the highest bidders without any reservation whatever. Should rain prevail on Monday morning, at the starting of the 10:10 Train, we will go by the 11:40, and in case of rain, then by the 1:20 P. M. A POSITIVE SALE is desired on MONDAY, in any event. Remember, then, that if it is fair weather on Monday morning, we will leave Federal Street Station of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway, at 10 minutes past 10 o'clock, railway time. You need not take dinner along. We need hardly call any further attention to Fleming Station as a desirable place for investment in Lots, either for private residence or in anticipation of making a little money. The place is growing rapidly in popular favor. It is unquestionably the best Station on the Railroad; it has good water, good society, and lovely scenery. The time attending this sale will be well spent. Those who are strangers to the place will be astonished to find so much beauty near to the smoky city of Pittsburgh (only six miles). All aboard, then, the 10 o'clock train MONDAY MORNING.

THE wool clip for the present year promises to be from 25 to 30 per cent greater than 1871.

THE PHILADELPHIA platform is good and stout enough for all right minded citizens to stand upon.

ENGLAND bows down before the supplemental treaty, as expressed by the United States Senate. Mark one for Grant's administration!

COLFAX gracefully accepts his defeat. He will retire from public life with an unsullied record, and will be followed by the best wishes of millions of his countrymen.

ORANGE S. WINANS, who was such a "taking" member of a recent New York Legislature, has come out as a "reformer" for Greeley. Mr. Winans has an excellent field before him if he will remember that reformation like charity begins at home.

THE "iron famine" now prevailing in the world, especially in our country, has brought out the fact that to keep our railroad tracks in repair and iron for new roads, requires fully one-half of all the iron production. The United States has now 65,000 miles of completed railroads.

PITTSBURGH is justly proud of containing the very best instrumental band in the United States—the Great Western. It fills the heart of the denizen with joy when he plumes himself abroad on the glory of our band, when he sees and hears it in rivalry with other "crack" organizations of like character.

THE Japanese are determined to learn all about our advanced civilization. The members of the troupe now in Washington have [illegible]ming for a base ball match. "[illegible]ari" is too old fashioned and they wish to substitute some new but equally expeditious method of easing themselves of life's troubles.

THE JILT down among the virgins of Virgin alley, we mean the Post, is proud of the fact that all the Democratic journals of the State join heartily in the support of Buckalew, while some Republican (?) papers are opposing Hartranft. That is all right, Buckalew is a heavy burden for our neighbor to carry, but it is thoroughly loyal to the party, and will trudge on under the weight like the willing ass it is.

RED CLOUD AND PARTY.

The visit of the Indian Chiefs, headed by Red Cloud, to New York city, will no doubt be of great service in showing those chiefs who are with him the powerful tide that is preparing to surge through the western prairies, and the necessity he and his followers have of going into a more civilized life than they at present follow. Red Cloud belongs to the most bloodthristy tribe of Indians on the plains. The Sioux's have always been foremost in deeds of horror, massacre and bloodshed on the emigrants who have traveled on the old road to California, and volumes could be written on their misdeeds. Then the Apache and Comanche tribes are equally bad, but they have not been brought so vividly before public notice, as the Sioux's. No one knows the Indian character better than those who have traveled through their country, and seen them at home so to speak; and a more mean cowardly, filthy and disgusting lot of sneaks, it would be impossible to meet with anywhere. Our lofty idea of the noble Red man is quickly diminished when we visit those regions and travel among them pretty freely. The general feeling from Omaha westward is that of contempt for them, and bitter hatred, and it is impossible to these western settlers to conceive why eastern folks have so much sympathy for the poor red man, but distance lends enchantment to the view, and Coopers novels have made deep impressions, of their great deeds of valor, to be overrated by those who read of them. The Government has done everything in its power for them, all to no purpose, they are so incorrigibly lazy that work of any kind is repulsive in the extreme, and to such an extent is it carried that the poor squaw has to carry all the lumber and and household goods of an Indian when he moves. As long as the Indian has an idea that he can get what he requires from the Government, so long will he be uncivilized and wild, and this they have been taught by criminals and outlaws who have found refuge from justice among them, and they are apt pupils. Therefore we say the visit of these chiefs to our principal cities will be of great good; to show them the power of the white man, and this, with the determined policy of General Grant to suppress outrages on our frontier settlements will be the best lesson we can give them. It does seem very hard for these poor Indians to be driven about from place to place, hence the sympathy that is aroused in their behalf. But is the march of civilization to be impeded by a mere handful of population such as these are. The world is too old for this kind of wild animal, and therefore if they wont hear the voice of reason, let us civilize them with a rod of iron. There are many tribes who are farming and doing well in the Western States who know less of the whiteman than this old sinner Red Cloud; but he now seems to be doing his best to show the most turbulent of his followers the destiny that surrounds them. Therefore feed, and feast them for a while longer, give them every opportunity of seeing the beauty of civilization and the extent and magnitude of our resources, their lack of reason, if that is what they need to understand, is well made up in craft and cunning; so if they do not profit by their experience they would not be converted "though one rose from the dead," and the only thing left for us to do, is to leave our President to deal with them in his next term of office, in the same firm and humane manner, that has hitherto earned our gratitude and admiration. People in eastern cities surrounded with every luxury, guarded while they sleep by efficient men, little think of what the emigrant who arrives on our shores has to contend with when he buys his land and settles on the frontiers of civilization, living from day to day with one hand on his ploughshare, the other on his gun, and when his stock is getting large and profitable is run off by these rascals, and followed by the burning of his home, his family outraged and murdered, and himself tortured and roasted to death, and this is the poor Indian for-sooth!

ORGANIZE! ORGANIZE!

The nation's choice, for President and Vice President, has been made. GRANT and WILSON are the chosen men. They will be elected without any doubt. But we want a rousing majority. One that will tell the world that we are progressive, that the march is going on in the way of all that is good, that the country holds fast to the principles of Liberty, Social Equality and Freedom in the broadest sense of the word. Let us organize. In union there is strength. We have good leaders. We have an abundance of strength, a whole army of followers. Every ward, district and township should at once form its Grant club. Just as Grant massed his forces before the enemy, let us mass ours. He went for victory and made it. We can afford to do the same thing, and just as rebellion melted away before his strong and well delivered blows, so will the divided opposition shrink before the mighty Republican majority. The fight is now at hand. Let us train for it. Organize everywhere, and victory is within our reach.

ELECTRIC TRANSIT.

Day after day, year after year, we are awakened to the fact that science is making great and rapid strides to open up, perfect and develope every mystery of nature, and its laws. Every new invention calls our attention to the vast and deep resources that must yet lie hidden in the womb of the future, and the possibility that generations yet unborn will think how stupid, how ridiculous and barbarous were our appliances and operations for locomotion and comfort or the conveniences of life. We judge this will be the case by a comparison of the past with the present, and a firm belief that science is yet in its infancy. Now, we have before us advices of the making of a model which it is expected will astonish the world, as experiments are to be made with it, to show the practicability of propelling railway cars by electricity. Scientific men are of the opinion that electric transit is possible, and in a western city active measures are being taken to solve this problem. It will be patent to everyone that such a test resulting in success would revolutionize travel, and bring about vast changes of the most beneficial kind, and cannot be too highly estimated. The most important of these changes would be the economic impulse it would give to commerce and the consequent improvement of all mankind who are civilized; the great saving of time, as it is estimated that speed of one hundred miles per hour is easily attainable, and also the saving of fuel in the shape of coal, wool and oil. As a contemporary says in speaking on the subject:

"Should this become a reality, people may leave New York, let us say, on the morning of one day and sup in San Francisco on the evening of the next—an amazing consummation, and yet not more amazing than the first feats of steam travel by land or sea a generation ago, or the exchange of notes within an hour between Washington and London under the Atlantic ocean to-day.

"The wonderful gain derivable from electricity as a motive force is specially manifest as applied to travel underground. Increased speed, of course, counts for much, but to get rid of smoke and the choking particles thrown off by coal, as well as of its attendant weight, would also be of signal moment. There would likewise be an obvious saving in rolling stock, and, although trains would be much faster, yet, pari passu, they might be fewer in number, and hence diminish the risk of accidents. However, there should be few of these in any case, since, wherever traffic is such as to call for an underground railway, it will warrant a double track, and thus allow all trains and engines to follow each other perpetually in the same direction. Another consequence of the use of the proposed force would be the industrial changes that would flow from the saving of fuel. There would be small occasion, indeed, for the fear sometimes expressed in England about the coal supply, if all the railways were suddenly to stop burning coal to drive their engines. This, in truth, would be only a fraction of the change thus brought about. For whatever would drive engines would drive other machinery; and steam would thus be superseded in the manufactories—a revolution so stupendous that its effects, on a cursory view, can only be matters of speculative conjecture."

We look forward with much interest to hear how this matter progresses, as to our minds it has a look of feasibility about it that is strengthened as we think over it; but yet a misgiving arises as to the possibility of its being used in sufficient force to make it a motive power for railway traffic.

MATTERS OF MOMENT.

AND Bourbon but echoes the sentiment of every twenty Democrats in the entire State.—Louisville Courier Journal.

You might have gone further than one State without fear of contradiction, for is it not admitted that "Bourbon" starts the echoes from Democracy all over the Union?

THE Greeley Banner of Lancaster, Pa., has heard from Connecticut, and announces the news with a flourish that would be sad if it were true, as "the first liberal triumph." If these heroic gentlemen who have "burned all the bridges" are to be Ferried over the river on a craft like that Connecticut election, they will touch the landing about the time set apart by Prof. Lyell for the washing of the land into the seas.

"As Pennsylvania goes so goes the Union" seems to be true not only in regard to the popular vote, but equally so in Conventions. While all the prophets were magnifying the potentiality of New York and predicting that its vote would decide the Vice Presidency in the Republican Convention, Pennsylvania quietly cast its ballot for Wilson, as against New York's Colfax votes and Wilson won.

AFTER all the hubbub about John Chinaman, it appears that our workingmen have not much to fear from him, for the latest statistics show that of the 118,553 Chinamen who have arrived at San Francisco within the last eighteen years, 42,437 have returned to China, and there are now but 62,000 Celestials in this country. The first year of their emigration, 1854, also shows a larger number of arrivals than any one succeeding with one exception.

THE Chicago Tribune man, after a night of agony spent in the vain attempt to figure "another Liberal triumph" out of the result for Oregon, gives it up, and dejectedly announces in a two line editorial that "Oregon has been carried by the Republicans with noticeable gains." That is good. Bro. White evidently is training for the "noticeable gains" of next November, which will send him wailing out into utter political darkness, and cause him to painfully regret that he ever attempted the role of political manager for a "sorehead" movement.

Sumner at Home.

The Boston Globe is in general decidedly conservative in all its writings, but in a most scathing criticism of Mr. Sumner's speech, it makes this sharp hit:

> Mr. Sumner always was a school boy in political matters, and his present production is only superior in quantity and diversity of subject to his youthful efforts at the Boston Latin school some forty odd years ago. There is now, as then, the same affectation of classical learning and deep reading in his performances, and we see nothing omitted or overlooked in his present arraignment of President Grant, unless it be a comparison of the offender to Caligula, who made a senator of his horse. How this happy hit escaped the attention of the orator we cannot conceive, but it is barely possible that he abstained from it for fear his auditors might conclude that, whatever luck Grant had met with in making his horse a senator, one of their honorable body had certainly made an ass of himself.

It is somewhat remarkable that the Republican papers of Massachusetts, which may be taken to thoroughly represent the party in that State, are the most unsparing denouncers of the Senator. He finds no support at home for his present course.

A Toilet Mystery.

The masculine intellect is taxed to its utmost capacity when the mysteries of the female garb become involved with the other intricacies of jurisprudence. A woman was shot lately in California and the Coroner attempted to illustrate the course of the bullet through her corsets by putting this strange device around his waist. He got it wrong side up, wrong side in front, and wrong side out, and though a married man, and assisted by the suggestions of several jurymen, he couldn't get it right until an experienced reporter stepped up and neatly adjusted the bit of mechanism for him.

THE "Woman's Pacific Publishing Company" has recently been incorporated, in the city of San Francisco, Cal. The company starts out with a capital of $25,000, and proposes to carry on the business of printing of all kinds, bookbinding and engraving, and to deal in books, newspapers, and periodicals. It is an enterprise started entirely by a number of women.

HISTORY OF THE COVENANTS.

Their Obligation Shown.

Third. Of the obligation of the covenants, or their moral force on the conscience of covenanters, and their posterity. All Abraham's spiritual seed, whether Jews or Gentiles, when they have faith in God, are as really covenanters, and heirs of the promise as was Abraham, the father of the faithful: whether they are now prepared to know and acknowledge it, or not. For it is said, Rom. 4, 13 "The promise that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham nor to his seed through the law, but through the righteousness of faith." This passage teaches that all the spiritual seed of Abraham are heirs of the world through the righteousness of faith, as well as Abraham. We are of the opinion that there could not well be a more important matter for consideration than the one we have before us.

We take it for granted that the moral law—the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the only, the exclusive source of moral obligation. This is the very Polar star of our profession.

Our fourth term of communion declares "that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the only rule of faith and manners."

There can be nothing else to oblige or coerce the conscience. We take it for granted that where the Scriptures do not speak either expressly, or impliedly there can be no moral obligation.

It is true, Blackstone says the natural and written law perfectly coincide, are of equal strength (p 42). But he says in another place, "yet undoubtedly the revealed law is infinitely more authentic than that moral system framed by ethical writers, called the natural law," (p 42). Then, the natural law cannot be a rule of moral conduct, being defective in authenticity; that which is defective in authenticity is not certainly what it purports to be—is not certainly genuine or true, and therefore lacks authority. What ethical writers may suppose to be the natural law, is not certainly so, and must leave the conscience in a state of doubt, and this doubt destroys the moral force of all such precepts.

Then the written, not the natural law, is the source of all moral obligations. Then, if the Divine law prescribes public, social covenanting as a duty, this prescription creates a moral, a perpetual obligation—one that descends to all generations, unless countermanded by the Supreme Law Giver.

The covenant which God made with Abraham and his spiritual seed—with the nation of Israel and their posterity was an everlasting covenant—a perpetual covenant not to be forgotten. God said to Abraham, "I will establish my covenant between me and thee, and thy seed after thee, in their generations, for an everlasting covenant; to be a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee." (Gen. 17, 7.) That is he would be a God to Abraham and to all the generations of his spiritual seed. Again, "he hath remembered his covenant forever, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations, which covenant he made with Abraham, and his oath with Isaac, and confirmed the same unto Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant." (Ps. 105, 8—10.) The National covenant regards the obligation of that covenant as descending from generation to generation. It says, "being convinced in our minds, and canvassing with our mouths that the present and succeeding generations in this land are bound to keep the foresaid national oath, and subscription inviolable." In the solemn league, and covenant, (section first) it is said, "that we and our posterity—that is, all posterity after us, may as brethren, live in faith and love, and the Lord may delight to dwell in the midst of us." Our fourth term of communion says, that the obligation of these covenants extends to those who were represented in the taking of them although removed to this or any other part of the world." Our ordination vows say, "that such moral covenants, whether civil or ecclesiastical, as recognize posterity, are binding upon those represented in the taking of them as well as upon the actual covenanters," "and that these engagements diverted of any thing peculiar to the British Isles, are binding upon the Reformed church in all lands."

Then, the Scriptures—the national covenant of Scotland—the solomn league and covenant of Scotland, England and Ireland—and the terms of communion, and ordination vows of the Reformed Presbyterian church, all teach that the covenants descend to posterity—to all posterity, and that those represented in taking them are bound as well as the actual covenanters. Then it is certain that the descendants of covenanters, that keep God's covenant, will inherit all the blessings of his covenant. "The Lord thy God will set thee on high above all nations of the earth: and all these blessings shall come upon thee, and overtake thee if thou shalt hearken to the voice of the Lord thy God. Blessed shalt thou be in the city, and blessed shalt thou be in the field. Blessed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy ground, the fruit of thy cattle, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep." Deut. 28:1-14.

But all the posterity of covenanters that forget, that forsake, or that break God's covenant, will inherit all the curses of the covenant. "Take heed unto yourselves lest ye forget the covenant of the Lord your God.......for the Lord thy God is a consuming fire, even a jealous God." (Deut. 4:23.) "And the Lord shall separate him (the covenant breaker) unto evil out of all the tribes of Israel according to all the curses of the covenant." Deut. 28:21.

"All nations shall say, wherefore hath the Lord done thus unto this land? What meaneth the heat of this great anger? Then men shall say, because they have forsaken the covenant of the Lord God of their father" (v. 24). "They have transgressed the law, therefore hath the curse devoured the earth" (Is. 24; 5, 6). "Thus saith the Lord God Isreal, cursed be the man that obeyeth notthe words of this covenant." (Jer. 11; 3). All obligations growing out of the written law are necessarilly perpetual, that is all moral, natural duties prescribed by the written law. 1st, Because an enlightened conscience can never refuse submission to a duty prescribed by a moral, natural precept contained in the scriptures, nor be subject to any precept not contained in the scriptures, or that does not necessarily grow out of them. 2d, Because no human legislation, either civil or ecclesiastical, can create an obligation, where one did not previously exist; for every possible obligation exists in the moral, natural precepts of the written law, independent of all human legislation. Neither can any human legislation set aside any obligation prescribed in the Divine law. All obligations growing out of the moral, natural precepts of the scriptures are perpetual and unchangeable; and the same is true of all oaths, vows, and covenants having the same origin; hence it is always a sin either to violate an oath, vow, or covenant, prescribed by the moral, natural law, or to keep such oaths, vows, or covenants, as are not prescribed by it. The larger catechism says, "violating our oaths and vows if lawful, or fulfilling them of things unlawful is sinful." (2; 113). NEMO.

Men as They Are.

I sometimes wish that ministers left their libraries to gather dust, and set themselves to studying human nature and the world as it is and not as they suppose it to be. I sometimes wish, that in disguise, if it can be done in no other way, they would make themselves personally acquainted with the hindrances and traps and snares sprung for men's halting, and be the better able to judge by what means they might be wisely drawn aside from them, other than denunciation, and whether substitutes for such pleasures ought not oftener be devised, instead of recommending church, or tracts, or prayer meetings. I am very sure that on a study of these things depends the well-being of many a man and woman whose bare and joyless lives clergymen little understand at present; the devil is so cunning in the knowledge of these weak and undefended sides of human beings, and christians and ministers, with all their well-wishing, so ignorant of them, and so slow, when told, to believe in the necessity of recognizing them.

Oh, my good friends, one and all, leave the study of Keren Happuck and Jerubbabel for John Smith and Jacob Jones, of your parishes, who are going fast to perdition for want of the first steps of spiritual enlightenment by recognition of their human needs. God's silent preachers, the sun, and the fresh air and the flowers, neither humiliate nor crush him, though he be friendless and homeless. For that bright sunshine is his, he knows, as well as yours. I am glad when he roams off and has such a Sabbath, with his little ones.

Would you rather he should go to church? Then why build it so fine that he feels like an outcast there? FANNY FERN.

Silver Mines of Utah.

Experienced miners know very well that silver mines of much value are only found in mountainous regions where the indications to the geolgists are beyond a doubt. Volcanic agencies have in some remote period been exerted on a gigantic scale. Thus in Mexico and in the rich silver leads of Utah, the evidences of an upheaval force that elevated extensive ranges of frightfully ragged mountain ridges from profound depths, are so possible as to be admitted at sight, even by those who have no scientific qualifications for guiding them to that conclusion. It seems that silver is thrown up from a vast depth in the earth, where, from the quantity commingled with rocks in a condition of liquefaction, the quantity from which that on the surface was derived must be in great abundance in its primitive state below. Scarcely more than superficial scratchings characterize silver mines in the West. The deeper the excavations, the richer will probably be the product. For thousands of years to come, those bold, hard, bleak Utah mountains will be scenes of human industry and skill in pursuit of that which will make commerce thrive over the whole world.

The Largest Ruby.

An exchange says: "Professor C. U. Shepard, of Amherst College, has just secured for his cabinet the largest ruby in the world. The largest ever known before is the size of a man's fist, but this is about two feet high, one foot in diameter, and weighs three hundred and sixteen pounds. It is not a pure ruby, but is mixed with sapphire, and was found in the mountains of North Carolina, quarried by nature out of rotton rock. Professor Shepard heard that it was on its way to Europe, and bid enough higher to secure it, paying three hundred dollars therefor, but many times that sum could not purchase it from him. Professor Shepard has also received from Macon county, Georgia, a sapphire weighing thirty pounds."

A DOE in a public park at Louisville has a constant and inseparable companion in a little black dog, which manifests for it the most singular affection. When the doe moves about the dog goes with it; when it lies down the dog nestles closely by its side, and continually licks, fondles and plays with it as if it were one of its own species. And at all times this little black dog assumes the guardianship of her deership, and protects her against any approach.

THE annual budget of the Spanish Government has been made public. The expenditures of the last fiscal year were 662,000,000 pesetas, and the receipts 548,000,000. The budget proposes to levy a tax of 10 per cent on railway fares. The tax on the interest of the internal debt is retained. Legacies are also taxed, and the tax on landed property is increased 10 per cent. The budget for the maintenance of the clergy is continued substantially without change.

GRACE GREENWOOD is still in San Francisco, and will visit the Yosemite Valley when the snows have cleared away.

Sickness of Forty Years' Duration Cured.

The cure related below is one of a very remarkable kind, on account of its long duration, and is well worthy of the attention of all those who may be afflicted with chronic disease of any kind, showing clearly that all such cases can be cured. It is that of Jacob Wagner, a respectable farmer, aged 63 years, of New Sewickley township, who has been in gradually failing health for a period of about forty years. The disease manifested itself by a continued cough and a wasting state of health, which, about the beginning of last October, culminated in an attack which showed that the lungs were becoming seriously affected. Mr. Wagner, in this state of his case, applied to Dr. Keyser, of this city, who, by a system of medicine of a restorative kind, has completely cured him and restored him to a state of health to which he has been a stranger for many long and weary years. His cure is thorough and complete, and evinces an amount of skill and perseverance in the treatment of such cases, by Dr. Keyser, which is rarely if ever attained in a life time. The cure was chiefly effected by Dr. Keyser's Lung Cure, and is another of the many instances of the wonderful restorative power of that medicine, in the cure of every disease of long standing, especially those in which the pulmonary organs and the blood are deteriorated.

Dr. Keyser's office is at 167 Liberty street, in the rear of his Drug Store, from 10 A. M. until 1 P. M., and from 3 until 6 P. M., and on Saturday's at night.

A treatise on Lung Diseases sent wherever it is wanted.

A DEAD DELUSION.

The theory that human beings whose strength has been exhausted by pain and sickness can be restored by depleting medicines and water gruel, if not absolutely a dead delusion, is in the last agonies of dissolution. At length it is understood that strength cannot be purged into a debilitated frame, though life may easily be purged out of it, and that it is about as wise to withhold a healthful stimulant from the weak, in the expectation that they will rally without one, as it would be to deprive a lamp of oil and expect it to burn the brighter for it.

The immense and uniform success which has attended the use of that wonderful combination of a pure stimulant with the finest medicinal herbs, known as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, has largely assisted in dispelling the absurd chimera. Frantic attempts are made to revive it, but in vain. When the sick feel that their strength is departing, and that unless invigorated they must utterly break down, it is in vain to tender them feculent slops in the place of genuine restoratives. They may be imposed upon in this way once, but the imposition cannot be repeated. They desire to be refreshed, comforted, braced up, and decline to be griped a second time.

Under the operation of the Bitters, on the other hand, all the processes necessary to physical restoration go on simultaneously. The system is stimulated and toned, the bowels regulated, the appetite cultivated, the nerves composed and the condition of the blood improved at one and the same time by a single medicine. Common sense tells us that such a preparation must be invaluable.

INVESTMENT SECURITIES.

To all seeking investment, combining large profit with abundant security, we offer and recommend the first mortgage 7-30 Gold Bonds of the North Pacific Railroad Company.

They have thirty years to run, and bear interest at the rate of 7 3-10 per cent. in gold.

Many holders of 5-20s are exchanging them for Northern Pacifics, and thereby Increasing their Annual Income Nearly One-Third.

The highest current rate will be paid for all marketable securities received in exchange.

The Company is now offering for sale to settlers and colonies Three Million Acres of its Lands in Minnesota, and a large area on the Pacific coast will soon be placed on the Market. Many thousand acres have already been sold. The proceeds of land sales constitute a SINKING FUND for the First Mortgage Bonds, and the Bonds are at all times convertible at 1-10 into the Company's Lands at market prices.

The Gardner Fire Extinguisher.

The Ed. Journal of the Franklin Institute, April, 1872, says: "The Gardner Extinguisher seems to us to be well worthy of commendation, inasmuch as it combines all the good qualities of other machines with the special advantages of greater convenience of form, security of the stop-cocks from the action of the materials employed and of the perfect control of the stream of gas, and we can indorse it as the most practical of any yet made public."

The Gardner is rapidly superseding the old-fashioned extinguishers.

NEW YORK, June 7, 1872.

On the favorable news about the treaty Erie advanced nearly to 64⅞, closing at 64⅛; New York Central Scrip 1⅜ per cent., or to 98⅜, the stock being ¼ per cent. above the Scrip. It is reported Vanderbilt sold a large amount of the latter in London. The rumor of the further issue of ten millions stock of the Central is denied. PITTSBUUGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, June 7, 1872.

ASHES—Common Soda Ash, (48 per cent) 4½; refined, (58 per cent) 6¼; Nitrate Soda, 5c; Arsenic, 3½; Pots, 10; Pearls, 11.

APPLE BUTTER—Sales, in a jobbing way, at 65 to 70 per gallon for fair to prime, and 75 for choice.

BUTTER—Continues very dull, and there is not much indication of an early improvement; the receipts continue liberal, and with a very limited demand, stocks are accumulating, and prices are weak. Dealers generally are willing to accept almost anything buyers may be pleased to offer; we hear of sales at 11 to 12 for good packed, and prime roll would not bring over 14 to 15.

BEANS—Small sales at $2,75 to $3,25 per bushel, as to qualiy.

BROOM CORN—Dull, and nominally unchanged, 5 to 8 cents per lb.

CARBON OIL—Is quiet and unchanged; 19½ to 20 cents by the car load, and 2 to 3 cts additional for smaller lots.

CHEESE—The receipts to-day were large, unusually so, but with a continued fair jobbing trade, prices are still maintained; 11 to 12 for Dairy; 13½ to 14 for Factory, and 14 to 14½ for Goshen.

COUNTRY BACON—Shoulders, 4½ to 5; Clear Sides, 6 to 6½; Hams, 8 to 9. Country Lard, 7 to 8 cts, according to quality and condition.

CONCENTRATED LYE—$5,50 ℔ case.

CANNED GOODS—Peaches (3 lb cans) $6,00 to $7 per case; Tomatoes $4,50@5; Corn, $5,50@$6,50, according to quality and brand.

CEMENT—Louisville $2,50 to $2,75; Calcined Plaster $4,50; Cleveland white Lime, $2; eastern, $1,75.

DRIED FRUIT—Apples still quoted at 9@11 cts, and scarce. Peaches continue dull; halves 8½ to 9 cts, mixed 7½@8 cts; quarters, 6½@7 cts; peeled 15 to 18 cts. Blackberries, 14 to 16; pitted Cherries, 26 to 30; unpitted, 6 to 8.

EGGS—The receipts are somewhat larger, and with only an average demand, the market is scarcely so strong; we continue to quote at 18, though it is rumored that some sales were made at 17.

FEATHERS—No. 1 may be quoted at 75 to 80 cts ℔ lb; mixed stock, 40 to 60 cts.

FLOUR—Dealers generally report the market quiet, and prices unchanged; $8,75 to $9,25 for good to choice Spring wheat, and $9,50 to $10 for red Winter. It is rather singular that while wheat has advanced 5 to 8 cents per bushel in Chicago and other western markets, within the past ten days, flour continues very dull, and does not respond, notwithstanding relatively it is cheaper than wheat; however, one of the principal reasons may be attributed to the fact that there is considerable speculation in the latter, which is not the case in regard to the former. Rye Flour quiet and unchanged at $5,75 to $6.

GRAIN—The grain markets continue dull and unsettled, and a good deal of anxiety is manifested in regard to the future; dealers are nonplused as to what policy is best for them to pursue; whethto close out or to hold. Some operators feel very confident there will be a better market, and prices for all kinds, within the next thirty days, and are acting accordingly, while others, equally as well informed, take a different view of the situation, and these latter are pursuing a very different course. Wheat continues dull, and there does not seem to be enough a doing to establish quotations. The mills are not as "bearish" as they were some time ago, which is owing to the fact that they are well stocked; and they know that if wheat declines Flour will have to follow suit. Oats continue dull, with a pretty strong disposition manifested by some dealers to realize, but prices are unchanged at 52 to 53 cts. The stock in this market is large for this season of the year, and increasing, and in some localities the stock yet remaining in first hands is large. Shelled Corn is dull and lower; we reduce our quotations to 65@66 cts free, in elevator. There seems to be no movement in Ear corn except in a jobbing way. Rye is quiet and unchanged; receipts light, and the same is true of the demand. We continue to quote at $1,00 to $1,05.

GROCERIES—Trade in our market is quiet, though all that can be expected at this season of the year. Sugars are again reported weaker, and the recent slight advance established in raws, has been almost, if not entirely, lost. There was to have been a conference of refiners in New York, on Wednesday or Thursday, the object of which, it is said, was to try if possible to deminish the production one third for the next thirty or forty days; this plan, if agreed upon and carried out in good faith, it is hoped, would tend to equalize prices of raw and refined, as the former has for some time past been higher relatively than the latter. Rio coffee is reported more active, and, in consequence, firmer at the seaboard but unchanged. Otherwise, the market is devoid of any new features worthy of notice.

REFINED SUGARS.—Standard Hards, 12¾; A Coffee, 11⅝; B, 11⅝; Ex C, 11⅛; C Yellow and Circle C, 11⅜. These quotations are for straight brands.

COFFEE.—Rio—Choice, 25@25½; Prime, 24@24½; Good, 23½; Fair, 23. Java, 28. Roasted, pure, 28; lower grades, 25@26.

RAW SUGARS.—Choice New Orleans, 11@11¼; Prime, 10½; Good, 10; Fair, 9½. Choice Porto Rico, 10½; Prime, 10¼. Demerara—Choice, 11⅝; Good, 11⅛.

NEW ORLEANS MOLASSES.—Choice, 80; Prime, 75; Good, 70; Fair, 65.

SYRUPS.—Fancy White Drips, 65; White Honey, 60; Havemeyer & Elder's, 53@55; other grades, from 40@50.

RICE.—Carolina—Choice, 9½; Prime, 9¼; Good, 9. Rangoon, 8@8¼. Patna, 8½@9.

SPICES.—Grain Pepper, 24; do Pimento, 16; Cassia, 50; Cloves, 25; Nutmegs, $1,25.

HAY—Continues very dull, the market being overstocked, but there is no change to note in in prices; $25 to $28 per ton, as to quality. There is no margin at these quotations, as the most of the stock in the hands of regular dealers cost about $30, and as noted in our last report, some of them are storing, refusing to sell at present prices.

HEMP—Kentucky rough at $130 per ton.

POTATOES—Continue very dull, and prices are lower and irregular; we can report sales of 300, 4 cars, at prices ranging from 25 to 45 cts per bushel, according to quality.

POULTRY—Live Chickens may be quoted at 75 to 85 cts per pair, by the coop.

PEA NUTS—Sales at 8½c for large lots and 9½@10 in a small way. Pecans—sales at 11cts for Texas, and 10 cts for other kinds.

PROVISIONS—Plain shoulders, 6cts; sugar cured do, 8cts; ribbed sides, 7¾cts; clear rib, 8¼cts; clear, 8¾cts. Breakfast Bacon, 10½@11cts; plain sugar cured hams, 12; do, canvased, 12½. Lard: in tierces, 9¾; in kegs, 10⅜; in buckets, 11¼. Mess Pork, 14½. Dried Beef, 17½. Ham sausage, 10.

RAGS—Sales at 4@4¼cts per lb.

SALT—Is still quoted at $1,85 per bbl by the car load, and $2 in a jobbing way.

SEEDS—There is a steady demand for Flaxseed and little or none arriving; may be quoted at $1,95@2. Nothing doing in Clover or Timoth Seeds.

SUMAC—Tennessee bolted 4½cts per lb.

TALLOW—Rendered 7½ to 8 cts.

WILLOWS—Offerings light; sales in a small way at 10 cts.

WHISKY—Highwines, in a jobbing way, may be quoted at 92@93 cts.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, June 7, 1872.

The market was weak, and as compared with yesterday, prices were considerably lower. Refined—sale 4,000 barrels prompt delivery at 23, and 3,000 bbls, seller last half June, at 23; these sales, it was stated, were made by Pittsburghers for the purpose of breaking the market, and if so, the movement was a success. Crude, also lower, in sympathy with refined; sales at $4,00 $4,02½, against $4,05 to 4,07½ yesterday. June refined was quoted at 23⅜ to 23½ on Thursday.

PITTSBURGH IRON MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, June 7, 1872.

The pig iron market continues dull, and presents no new features worthy of notice; the inquiry, what little there is, is mainly for small lots to keep up mixtures, and the volume of business, in consequence, is light, and the operations unimportant. Prices, as compared with last week, are without quotable change; good red short irons are still held at $55, 4 mos, but there is no demand scarcely worthy of the name. It is expected that business will revive again early next month, if not before, and it is hoped that these expectations may be fully realized:

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to rise slowly at this point, and the indications are again favorable for an immediate resumption of navigation. There was a heavy rain in the forenoon, and the prospects in the evening were favorable for more. Both the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers were reported rising at last accounts.

There have been no arrivals or departures since the date of our last report excepting the slackwater packets.

The Juniata will commence business again to-day, and she is announced to take her departure for Cincinnati on Monday.

The West Virginia is the regular independent packet for Geneva and all intermediate points to-day, leaving promptly at 3 P. M.

The Brill, Captain Cox, will take her departure for Nashville as soon as there is sufficient water.

—Tuesday's Memphis Avalanche says of the recent Arkansas overflow: Captain John T Myers, the pilot of the steamer T. H. Allen, which vessel came in yesterday afternoon from Little Rock, report that the damage done by the overflow along the lower Arkansas is much less than has been reported. Only one place has been hurt on the south bank of the river, and this only to a limited extent. The plantation of W. Q. Pennington, 25 miles below Little Rock, is the one referred to. The plantations injured near Eagle Landing, 30 or 40 miles below the Rock, are those of E. F. Cores,' Sales' and Brodies,' all only slightly damaged. With the exception of a few back fields that have been under for a few days, no others have received damage. Many of the cotton fields that were under will not require replanting, as the water ran off without killing the young plant. Near New Gascony, below Pine Bluff, where the levees were reported broken, the injuries have been fully repaired. About Reives' Landing, 60 miles below the Bluff, Major Springfield's levee caved in and wet a few fields, and two or three other places were somewhat damaged in the neighborhood. Col. Moore's farm, 100 miles below Pine Bluff, was damaged a little by the big water. The above named plantations are all that have been harmed to an extent worthy of mention, and these will soon be all right again.

—The greatest flood of which we have recorded or traditionary account in Ohio is the famous rise of February, 1832, when the river attained a hight of thirty-one feet at Pittsburgh, forty-five feet at Wheeling, and sixty-three feet at Cincinnati, above its summer surface. This flood reached its highest mark, from place to place along the river, at the following dates:

Pittsburgh, February 10.
Wheeling	"	11, evening 88 miles.
Marietta,	"	13, noon 176 "
Maysville,	"	16, night 405 "
Cincinnati,	"	17, mdni't 460 "
Louisville,	"	21, morn'g 613 "

From these facts it appears that that remarkable wave travelled from Pittsburgh to Cincinnati, a distance computed at four hundred and sixty miles, in seven and a half days, or at the rate of sixty-one miles a day, or two and a half miles an hour.

—Regarding business about the Falls at Louisville, we give the following letter from James Howard, of Jeffersonville, Indiana, to Captain M. N. Wood, which speaks for itself: "You are mistaken about the Louisville and New Orleans boats. There is none being built here, and we think not likely to be this summer. There has been considerable talk about building, but it has all blown over. There is not at the present time, a single steamboat under contract above the falls. Accounts from all quarters in regard to steamboat business are very unsatisfactory, and there seems to be nothing to encourage boat building. We hope, however, there is a better time coming, and that the time is not far off.

—The steamer James Howard, which was aground at the mouth of Tradewater, got off last Sunday. She had to take off a large quantity of her freight, and put it on her barges to lighten her off.

—The Henry C. Yaeger goes on the Carondelet Marine Wave, to be caulked and strengthened. The Mollie Moore will be finished this week and will be a 1,200 ton boat on six feet of water.

—The swamps in the low lands of Louisiana, between Monroe and Shreveport, are overflowed, and swollen streams prevent the running of mail stages from point to point.

—The officers of the New Richmond Belle, rather than go into a law suit, paid the captain of the Arrow Line $50 for the cord of wood they took and used while up Casidy's bayou.

—The boat Imperial struck one of her barges against a stump or a snag, Sunday morning, near Canton, Missouri, and sunk it. The barge contained 10,000 bushels bulk corn.

—A tobacco banquet is in progress at Evansville. There are 1,500 hhds on the breaks, and a large attendance from all parts of the country, and several heavy buyers from Europe.

—Capts. Noel and Swivel have purchased the little steamer Trader for $5,500. She is to run from Vicksburg to Greensville during the summer months.

—The R. A. Babbage left St. Louis for Dubuque on Monday evening with three barges of Pittsburg coal for the gas works in that city.

Seven Seals.

We desire to call the attention of our readers to the interesting local to be found in another column calling attention to the great Medicine House of Kennedy & Co. The goods which they manufacture are made from the very best ingredients, and are always all they are represented to be. The "Seven Seals or Golden Wonder" which is manufactured only by this firm is rightly called an elixir vitae. It's cures have been almost magical and would lead one almost to believe that the age of miracles is not passed.

A Reliable Agency.

Mr. Max Schamberg, at No. 163 Smithfield street, will promptly attend to any business entrusted to him, in reference to drafts on all the cities of Europe, selling tickets for passengers to and from all European cities, buying and selling Foreign coin, or exchanging at the lowest rates,—in fact everything connected with a Foreign banking business. Mr. Schamberg makes a specialty of the matter of collecting in Europe, and will attend to that business at the lowest rates and promptly—that is, without a day's delay, satisfactorily. Any business of that kind which our readers may have we would advise their leaving with him.

Among the Dry Goods Stores.

We know of none where the customers can depend more confidently on finding a good assortment of all textures and styles of Dress Goods now in the mode, than at the store of H. J. Lynch, No. 96 Market street. Mr. Lynch has a large list of old customers who deal with him because he never deceives them; what he or his salesmen say of his goods may be depended on. He is constantly receiving new goods, and allows no house in the business to undersell him. Just now he displays an elegant stock of stripped and plain Japanese Silks, black and colored Silks, Hernanis, Japanese Cloths, Dolly Varden chintzes, &c., all at reduced prices.

Grand Temple of True Templars.

This organization a day or two since concluded its half yearly session at Mauch Chunk. The Grand Temple was shown to be in a very flourishing and prosperous condition. The following Grand officers for the State were elected: A. W. McGonnigle, of Pittsburgh, for grand templar; Wm. C. Bessborn, of Philadelahia, for grand vice-templar; George F. Barnes, and Leonard Fisher, of Philadelphia, for grand recorder and grand treasurer; John McMillan and Duncan Wright, of Scranton, for grand guards; John Short, of Pittsburgh, and Wm. T. Phillis, of Birmingham, for grand ushers. The annual session of the order will be held in Philadelphia next November.

Fourteenth Ward Grant Club.

A special meeting of the Fourteenth ward Grant Club was held Thursday night, at their rooms, upon receipt of the news of the nomination of Grant and Wilson by the Philadelphia Convention.

In the absence of the President and Secretary of the Club, who were in Philadelphia attending the Convention, Mr. Henry Lloyd was called to the Chair and Mr. Gilbert M. McMasters was appointed Secretary pro tem.

The Chairman made a brief address, after which he read a stirring poem, written by a resident of the ward and sent to him. It attracted great interest and was received with cheers.

On motion of Mr. John Fleming it was ordered that the poem be received and filed with other papers of the club.

Remarks were made by several, indicating not only faith in the great principles of the Republican party, but also in Grant and Wilson as the national standard bearers of the party in 1872, and that with our State ticket, and the more than usually good county ticket we have, we would sweep Pennsylvania in October, and in November by an overwhelming majority carry the State for Grant and Wilson.

On motion adjourned.

The Crispins.

A hearing was held before Alderman O'Donnell, yesterday, in the case of James McGanahan against Frank Shanley, Thomas McCarten, Dennis Allen and James McCarten. It will be remembered that some weeks ago an information for conspiracy was entered against about forty journeymen shoemakers, members of the Crispin Society, by the boss shoemakers who alleged that the defendants threatened their men if they refused to join the strike. A cross suit was then made charging the employers with the same offence. The plaintiff, who is a shoemaker, charges the defendants with conspiracy in trying to prevent him from obtaining employment on account of his being a member of the Crispin Society who were on a strike for higher wages.

Three witnesses were examined and the evidence elicited showed that the defendants had met together and agreed not to employ any of the Crispins at the price they demanded. One witness testified that the defendants came to him and told him that if any of the men who were on the strike came to his shop not to give them work.

After the case was argued, Thomas McCarten was discharged and Dennis Allen and Frank Shanley were held for court.

An Evening of Song.

Our popular home musical organization—the Allegheny Quartette Club—Messrs. Horner, Darling, W. B. Slack and W. H. Slack, gave one of their delightful entertainments Thursday evening to a few of their friends in High School Hall. In saying a few of their friends, we mean all that the hall, closely packed, would hold, but not all with whom the club is an ever welcome favorite. The beautiful room contained an exceedingly select audience, and a thoroughly appreciative one too, if the frequent but always well merited applause be any criterion. The programme embraced a choice selection of ballads, comprising some that were as irresistibly comic, and others as touchingly sentimental as any one favoring either class could possibly have desired. Solos, duetts, trios and quartettes were brought out, and the capabilities of the club individually and collectively were thoroughly tested—never, we think to better advantage. The audience frequently manifested their delight by calling for a repetition of favorite songs, which calls, though we must say unreasonable on the part of the audience, were always responded to with good humor and patience. The entertainment continued for about two hours, and was thoroughly enjoyable in every detail.

Return of the Lincoln Club.

The major portion of the Lincoln Club with the Great Western Band, arrived home yesterday morning, but owing to the inclemency of the weather did not march, as intended, to the club rooms. The members speak in the highest terms of Philadelphians and say that they were treated in the kindest manner during their stay. The trip was a most pleasant one throughout, and will long be remembered by those who participated. The club witnessed the most enthusiastic, and the best National Convention ever held and they speak by the card, because they had every opportunity to experience the excellence of the arrangements. They had the advantage of the presence of Maj. Russel Errett, Robt. W. Mackey and Col. Stewart, to whom they are indebted for attentions. When assembled before the Girard House preparatory to departure the club gave three cheers for Grant, Wilson and Hartranft, and for the good citizens of Philadelphia. Then, headed by the Great Western Band they marched via Chestnut and Market streets to the depot. On the way a vote of thanks was given to, and three cheers awarded to Col. Stewart for his kindness and attention during the excursion. Col. Stewart returned thanks to the members of the club for their uniform attention, obedience to orders and gentlemanly bearing throughout.

The Liquor Dealers.

Pursuant to a call published in the city papers a meeting of the wholesale and retail liquor dealers and brewers was held last evening in Phœnix Hall, on Eleventh street. The attendance was not very large, and the meeting developed very little enthusiasm.

Mr. Marker Rush was called to the chair, and Mr. H. Darlington elected Secretary.

The President explained the object of the meeting to be the organization of a society for the protection of the interests of the liquor dealers of Allegheny county, similar to those organized in the Eastern cities.

The Secretary read a constitution of a similar society in Philadelphia, after which it was announced that the Secretary was ready to receive names to the organization.

Some one suggested that if this was to be a secret society the members of the press should be excluded.

The President replied that they would be excluded as soon as a permanent organization was effected.

At this point one gentleman of the press remarked that he thought reporters should be admitted on the grounds of being consumers.

Mr. Darlington moved that a committee of three be appointed to draft a constitution and report at the next meeting in one week. Messrs. Darlington, Friday and Devlin, were appointed by the Chair.

The Secretary was authorized to issue another call for a meeting to be held in the same hall in one week at seven and a half o'clock.

On motion, adjourned.

THE ROW AT TRIMBLE'S.

Statement of the Occurrence—An Evening Paper in a Fog.

In yesterday's GAZETTE a brevity was published stating that a "free fight" occurred at Trimble's Varieties on Thursday night. No further mention of the occurrence would have been made in these columns but for the statements made in an evening paper that no such "fight" ever occurred. The statement of the trouble as originally published was received from Lieutenants Palmer and Hazen, of the police force, who request us to say that a "fight" did occur on the night of Thursday, which was really, a near approach to a riot. It is not because we have any wish to damage the Varieties Theatre that we give the facts, but only as a fair vindication of our local news. The paper in question, the most reliable of the local news in which, can be read every morning in the daily journals, having denied our statement, it is but fair that we should state the facts.

Officer Lawrence Cook is detailed at the Varieties as policeman. He stated to the Lieutenants already mentioned that on Thursday night there was a "free fight" at Trimble's. It appears that a benefit was being given on that occasion and that cheers and hisses were freely indulged in, and that the partisans of certain performers becoming angered at the slight thrown upon their favorites inaugurated a "muss." He stated that at one time some thirty or forty couples were on the floor of the theatre engaging in fisticuff exhibitions and that several persons were more or less hurt in the conflict. He (Cook) was requested by some persons to go out and fetch in the police, but did not do so as he did not consider it to be his business to find policemen. The officer further stated that he threw some fifteen persons out of the house for indulging in the fight, and that one of Mr. John Trimble's bill stickers ejected even a larger number. One man received a severe cut in the mouth which it is supposed was received from a handy-billy. Officer Cook further stated that he expected to have a benefit in a short time but he feared that this gross disorderly conduct "would knock that in the head." This is the information as we received it from Lieutenants Palmer and Hazen. In our yesterday's issue we purposely dealt lightly with the matter out of respect for the gentlemanly manager of the Varieties,—Mr. Aims, but as the journal referred to has chosen to doubt the fact and publish another statement giving the lie to what we published, we are forced to give the facts in the case. The public will see how easily our evening contemporary is sold, save when it clips the reliable news of the morning journals.

SUNDAY LIQUOR SELLING.

A Committee from the Outside Districts Visits the Mayor—Its Members Request the Enforcement of the Sunday Law Against Liquor Selling.

A Committee of the residents in and around East Liberty, waited on Mayor Blackmore yesterday at his office, in order to present to him their statements as to the necessity of enforcing the law prohibiting the selling of liquor on the Sabbath. The delegation consisted of Messrs. W. G. Johnson, Alexander Bates, Thomas Davidson, H. R. Tomer, George Hubley, W. L. Denison, F. B. McConnell, J. W. Morgan, George A. Berry, Thos. M. Howe, Jos. Woodwell, C. H. Paulson, Wm. Frew, G. W. Hallman, F. Sellers, Geo. Singer, Jr., G. R. White, G. F. Rahm, Sr., Thos. Patterson, R. C. Cunningham. The gentlemen stated to his Honor that large crowds of persons have been in the habit of visiting East Liberty and its neighborhood on Sabbath days apparently for the purpose of being able to indulge in the use of intoxicating liquors. That many tavern keepers taking advantage of this fact keep open house and sell wine, ale and spirits, and that in consequence, noise, confusion and disorderly conduct are common on Sundays. The Mayor had the authority to stop this state of affairs, and it was honestly hoped that he would do so.

The Mayor assured the gentlemen that the matter should be promptly attended to, and that criminal prosecution will be commenced against any and all who sell liquor on Sundays, if evidence can be had against them. Not only will the law be rightly enforced at the East End, but wherever Sunday liquor-sellers can be found within the limits of the city they will all be prosecuted, and if possible sent to jail.

Grant and Wilson was in the mouths of all our male citizens yesterday, many predicting that they would sweep the country this coming fall, by such majorities that would put at rest further controversy, whether the war was a failure or not; but the many women who talked about the superiority of Mardorf & Co.'s brooms over all others for sweeping your house, greatly exceeded the Grant and Wilson crowd. It is the universal opinion of all good housekeepers, that these brooms will last twice as long, and do much better work than any others made. Ask your Grocer for them, and take none other. SEVEN SEALS.

A Visit to the Great Medicine House of the West—The Manufactory, the Firm and the Remedy—Messrs. Kennedy & Co's Great Facilities and Immense Trade—The Seven Seals or Golden Wonder, the Great Medical Discovery of the Age—The Elixir Vitae of Modern Science—Its Singular Efficacy as a Remedial Agent—Its Value Attested by the Medical Fraternity—Its Claims on Afflicted Humanity.

Away back in the dim and misty ages of the past, men labored assiduously and sought with untiring devotion, in the visionary researches of the "occult art," to discover the elixir vitæ which should cure all diseases and prolong life indefinitely. And although it eluded their search they discovered much that relieves mankind of pain and sickness, and the result of their labors was the clearing of the field and the preparation of the ground for the grander and more universal sciences of medicine and chemistry. While we in the present advanced state of medical science may regard the ancient alchemists with derision, yet it appears that groping their way in the dark, vainly endeavoring to find out a great medical agent applicable in its effects to a wide range of diseases, they but anticipated the more enlightened and successful efforts of men, who, in later years have but followed the plain dictates of science and cultivated reason. One of the most eminent of these men, and one who has succeeded in giving to the world one of the most effective medicines known, is Dr. Radcliffe, a celebrated English physician, the discoverer of the Seven Seals or Golden Wonder, who has seen proper to revive vivid recollections of the alchemists in giving it a name. The name "Seven Seals" was doubtless suggested from the fact that Dr. Radcliffe was the seventh son of a seventh son, to whom superstition has accorded marvelous power in the healing of diseases. This, however, is relatively of little concern in comparison with the extraordinary healing properties combined in the medicine. The "Seven Seals" was first used by Dr. Radcliffe, in Bath, England, with wonderful effect, and from its origin in 1841 steadily grew in favor until it obtained a vast popularity throughout England, and has since continued to be regarded as one of the best remedial agents in use. It was subsequently introduced into the United States by Mr. Kennedy, one of the present proprietors, a relative of Dr. Radcliffe, who commenced its manufacture four years ago on a small scale and with limited facilities.

THE MANUFACTORY AND EXTENT OF THE BUSINESS.

But so rapidly has the demand for it increased, with apparently little effort on the part of the proprietors, that Messrs. Kennedy & Co. have been compelled to enlarge their capacity for its manufacture, and to procure a site which would afford them sufficient room to prosecute their enterprise on a scale adequate to meet the wants of their constantly growing trade. They are now located at the corner of Wood street and First avenue, and occupy the whole of the capacious building, which is admirably adapted to their purpose. The spacious basement is used as a vast reservoir for the materials from which the medicine is compounded.

On the first floor we find the commodious, airy and pleasant offices where the extensive business of the firm is transacted. The most admirable taste is displayed in their appointments and furnishment. The walls and partitions are solid walnut, inlaid with ash, and the doors are of heavy walnut, all finished in the most artistic style, while the floors are carpeted with the rarest and finest quality of Brussels. The chandeliers are ornate and costly, and in keeping with the elegant apartments for which they were designed. The desks are of walnut and ash, of the most beautiful designs, and most convenient in their arrangement. Here may be seen clerks opening, examining and answering the vast numbers of letters constantly pouring in upon the firm from every section of the United States and the Canadas. Here, too, will be found shippers, busy marking and forwarding goods to the agents of the firm, many of whom obtain immense quantities to supply the heavy demand in their various localities.

That portion of the first floor to the rear of the offices is used for packing and storing, and is literally filled with goods ready for shipment.

The second floor is used for preparing the medicines for market, which affords constant employment for a number of hands.

On the third floor is the laboratory, where the "Seven Seals" is compounded under the personal supervision of Mr. Kennedy, the presiding and directing genius of the entire establishment. This vast medicine depot is a marvel of systematic arrangement throughout, and taken as a whole, is one of the most complete of the kind in the country. The business, too, is far more extensive than we had imagined, and we were assured that the sales for the current year will reach one hundred thousand dollars.

THE RELIABILITY OF THE FIRM.

While the medicine manufactured by Messrs. Kennedy & Co., is no quack nostrum, but a reliable remedy whose merits are well attested, the firm is not an ephemeral one which dazzles all by the brilliancy of its operations for a time and then ends in bankruptcy and irretrievable ruin. Mr. Kennedy, the principal member composing it, although yet a young man, is known as one of our most reliable citizens and thoroughly successful business men. His energy, enterprise and business capacity have earned for him a most enviable reputation and placed him in positions of trust which he fills with credit to himself and to the best interests of all who are allied with him. And while his business career has been one of exceeding brillancy, he is yet regarded as a safe, prudent, far-seeing, conscientious and perfectly reliable man, in whose hands the destinies of any enterprise are in safe keeping. He is President of the First National Building and Loan Association, of Allegheny, an institution having a capital of half a million dollars. Besides he is President of the M. and M. Building and Loan Association, of Allegheny, and Director of the Iron City Insurance Company; also heavy stockholder in Wylie Avenue Savings Bank, Duquesne Savings Bank and Homestead Bank, all flourishing and responsible institutions. This should certainly be sufficient to dispel all doubts, should any arise, concerning the liability and soundness of the firm. We have been thus particular in stating the facts for the benefit of those to whom Mr. Kennedy is not personally known, and we would add that all orders received by the firm will be promptly and satisfactorily attended to and all business transactions of the firm will as far as lies in their power be conducted upon the principles of just and honorable dealing. Parties, therefore, who see this paper, although living remote from this city, may rest assured that the firm of Kennedy & Co., is thoroughly responsible and that they need feel no hesitation in assuming business relations with them. Having promised thus much concerning the extensive manufactory of the "Seven Seals" and the character of its proprietors as business men, we proceed to give some facts relative to the medicine itself, which may be read with benefit by the afflicted everywhere.

THE WONDERFUL DISCOVERY.

The wonderful efficacy of Dr. Radcliffe's great medicine as a remedial agent has been amply attested, and thousands of testimonials have been received, unsolicited, from parties living in every section of our broad land, from Boston to San Francisco, and from the lakes to the gulf, who speak from personal knowledge of its almost miraculous power in curing the most obstinate and protracted cases of disease of almost every kind. In many instances, which might be given, this medicine has been used with the most telling effect, and has brought about a radical cure in long standing cases of neuralgia, inflammatory rheumatism and other chronic ailments, long after all hope for the patient had been abandoned by regular physicians. From these and other considerations we are warranted in pronouncing this sovereign and almost universal remedy one of the greatest discoveries of this or of any age. Its success has been almost unlimited and wholly unprecedented, not only in relieving pain, but in effecting radical and permanent cures in cases where temporary relief was all that the unhappy patient expected to realize from its use. It is constantly establishing cures of the utmost importance, and the most incredulous are convinced of the power and virtue of this great remedy. That it is without a rival will appear from the fact that it has been used in every species of disease after other medicines had been tried and failed, and even in such extreme cases has usually succeeded in restoring the afflicted to full vigor and the enjoyment of perfect health. It might be well just here to enumerate some of the diseases in which the Seven Seals or Golden Wonder, has proven most efficacious, and to show wherein it particularly excels all simple preparations now before the public. And it will be observed from the list herein given that acute and chronic pains alike disappear before its magic power and wonderful influence. The grand secret of the success of this medicine in cases of the most intense, excruciating and agonizing pains, aches, cramps, spasms, etc., and in the distressing agony of rheumatism, neuralgia and all kindred complaints is found in its absolute power to subdue and extinguish pain almost instantaneously. In all cases where an external embrocation or linament is required, or where there is pain, inflammation or congestion, it cures with singular rapidity. Nor is it less certain to be used with great benefit inwardly in cramps, spasms, diarrhœa, sickness at stomach, headache, and other simple ailments. It is only a simple statement of the fact which has been verified over and over again to say, that the Seven Seals or Golden Wonder will remove all these difficulties in a few minutes at the furthest. But while the Seven Seals is almost invaluable in these cases, yet it is in more malignant and fatal diseases that its great curative power is most strikingly manifested. The deleterious and poisonous effects of pestilential swamps, malarial atmosphere and miasmatic fogs are counterbalanced and effectually neutralized by free use of the Seven Seals or the Golden Wonder, which is adapted to free man from climatic influences, and preserve him in perfect health amid the most unfavorable and unhealthy surroundings. It may appear incredible that one medicine should be adapted to the treatment of such a variety of complaints, yet it is nevertheless a fact, substantiated by practice and experience; and while theory opposes such a conclusion, the counter-irritant disinfectant, diffusive stimulant, anodyne, nervine and tonic properties so happily combined in this great medicine, amply verify it. Each of these properties is so harmoniously blended and associated with the other that they severally perform with singular and marvelous rapidity their independent duties, and when the symptoms of the disease indicate the want of their united influence, the Seven Seals supplies this important requisite, for in the hundreds of cases where this preparation has been used, it has saved life, after science and skill had been completely baffled. Of what other remedy now in use can as much truthfully be said? Where can be found another medicine as safe, sure, speedy, effectual and reliable in all painful affections as the Seven Seals? We know of no preparation that will at all compare with this one, and its proprietors challenge the world to produce a remedy that will prove by actual test to be superior for all pains, external or internal, chronic or acute, to Dr. Radcliffe's great remedy, Seven Seals or Golden Wonder.

The Seven Seals is a purely vegetable remedy, composed of roots, herbs, barks and gums, and containing no ingredient, poisonous or hurtful to the system, such as mercury or calomel, and many of the most eminent physicians have used it in their practice and testified to its superior excellence as a wholesome and valuable compound.

Celeste! Celeste! Celeste!

Nothing has more true merit consolidated in it than the Taylor & Farley Celeste Organ. The material used in their construction is the best, while they have elegance and taste which will insure their being ornaments in any situation in which they are placed. The quantity of tone is pure, clear and brilliant, being free from harshness, while at the same time it has great power and capacity for effect. The Vox-seleste stop controls an independent solo set of reeds of great sweetness of tone, capable of numerous combinations with other stops, and can also be used in the full organ, adding largely to the volume of tone. S. Hamilton & Co., the sole agents for these organs, have a large stock to select from, ranging in price from $60 to $700. All can be suited. You can, if you wish, buy one of the cheaper grade on the rental plan, and in the course of a year or two, exchange it for a better and more costly one. Visitors to their rooms will be courteously received and the merits of the instruments and the easy terms upon which they are sold fully explained. Remember the No. is 51 Fifth avenue, sign of Celeste, Pittsburgh.

How to Get Rich.

More money is made on real estate than in any other way.

The most is made by buying where improvement must come and before it gets there. If you wait for improvement you lose the chance of profit. Improvement follows the lines of communication, and is always greatest where the means of communication are best.

The only place in Pittsburgh that has the advantage of two railroads is North Homestead, in the Twenty-second ward: thirty-eight daily accommodation trains now stop at its stations.

It is laid out in building sites averaging over a quarter acre exclusive of the streets, which are all 60 feet wide. It will be sold out on Monday June 17, for 10 annual payments, without interest, for less than half the price required in other places, with but half the advantages of accessibility. Outside of all this, it is an airy, healthy and exquisitely beautiful locality. If you want to double your money inside of a year, you have knowledge enough for a sensible man.

Nature's Changes.

All things in nature observe the great law of change, and the wintry garments which wrap the earth in January give place in May to the verdure of spring, and the spring greenness loses itself in the golden bloom of summer. Then why should not man follow the examples of this wise dame, and change his garment to suit the seasons. There really is no reason why he should not except a lack of opportunity, but in Pittsburgh that excuse will not hold good so long as Hespenheide & Co. continue to turn out their elegant and seasonable suits for patrons of all ages. Gentlemen then should avail themselves of the advantages at Hespenheide & Co.'s, No. 50 Sixth street.

A Second Sale on Monday of large Lots at Mansfield. Free train. Free lunch. See Improvement Trust Company's advertisement on fourth page.

How to Decide.

Many ladies who have been impostured by sewing machine agents, have become bewildered as to the relative merits of the different machines, and hence buy none of them. A good way to get out of this dilemma is to go at once to No. 178 Liberty street, and make a purchase of an American Buttonhole and Overseaming Machine. The merits of the American will be apparent to even the most inexperienced observer who will take the trouble to spend a few minutes in an examination of its simplicity of mechanism and the beauty of the work which is done upon it. Buy an American and you will be satisfied.
